At $165,000 A Month, This Is The New Most Expensive Apartment Rental In New York

By Julie Zeveloff

There's officially a new titleholder for the most expensive apartment rental in New York City. It belongs to the Astor Suite, a four-bedroom apartment in the Plaza that's going for $165,000 a month, according to the New York Post (via Curbed).

We know, that's more than a lot of people spend on a house.

The apartment is owned by Esprit founder Jurgen Friedrich, who tried to sell it several years ago for $55 million. It hit the rental market today.

It was recently renovated, and offers three bedrooms, five bathrooms, a library, a dining room and an eat-in kitchen, as well as a guest apartment with an additional bedroom and bathroom, a sitting room and a terrace, the Post reports.

Anyone debating whether the price is too high will be glad to know that the apartment comes fully furnished.

The apartment is on the fifth floor of the Plaza

It's actually 2 separate apartments: a main residence and a guest suite across the hall

The apartment was named the Astor Suite after Donald Trump bought the building in 1988
