

RICHCRIBS

Tennis, everyone? This club is for sale

The 5-acre Shinnecock Tennis Club in Southampton is on the market.

The Shinnecock Tennis Club in Southampton is on the market for $10 million.

The 5-acre property includes 14 HarTru tennis courts, a remodeled clubhouse with a three-bedroom apartment above, separate women's and men's locker rooms, bathrooms and showers, and a pergola that provides shade between matches.

Terry Sciubba of Sherlock Homes Realty is the listing agent.

—ARLENE GROSS

IN SANDS POINT, A BAR AND BOOKS

A Sands Point home on the market for $4.99 million features a luxury bar with library.

The book shelves, ceiling and bar are made of mahogany. There are silk grasscloth wall coverings, alabaster sconces and antique glass as well as wine refrigeration, a service sink, an ice maker and pull-up stools beneath the marble counter.

The six-bedroom, five-bathroom, two half-bathroom home includes a breakfast room off the kitchen. The house also features a gym, playroom, master suite with winter views of the Long Island Sound, a screened-in porch and front and back covered porches.

The 2-acre property includes a pool and hot tub, cabana pool house with kitchen and laundry facilities, and a three-car garage with an upper-level storage area.

The Sands Point home, with a bar-and-library area, is on the market for $4.99 million.

The listing agent is Maggie Keats of Douglas Elliman Real Estate.

—ARLENE GROSS