

NEW LISTINGS

Elliman agents Dina Lewis, Melanie Lazenby are listing this four bedroom, 3.5-bath penthouse at The Turin on Central Park West for $12.75 million. The great room has 10 ft. ceilings high ceilings and a wall of Central Park and reservoir-facing windows. The sun-flooded apartment has been renovated and designed to meld architectural details with a modern sensibility by James Harb. The Turin is a full-service white-glove pre-war co-op with live-in super, a children's playroom, a fitness room, and a bike rooms in the heart of the Upper West Side, directly across the street from Central Park, as well as being only moments away from some of the Upper West Side's best shopping, dining, and schools.
