HAVE YOU HEARD ...

Home hunters who would like to run in to Chelsea Clinton in the mailroom have several opportunities.

Clinton, the former first daughter, and her husband have purchased a 5,000 s/f apartment at the Whitman on Madison Square Park, according to the New York Post.

Now a correspondent for NBC news, Clinton is married to Marc Mezvinsky, an investment banker.

The building is comprised of three full-floor, four-bedroom residences and one duplex penthouse.

Sales started in February, and the other units, including the penthouse, are still listed for sale on the listing site StreetEasy.com.

Clinton and Mezvinsky's fourth floor purchase features four bedrooms, six and a half bathrooms, a home office and den, and direct Madison Square Park views.

Building amenities include a gym, keyed elevator and refrigerated package room.

The listing brokers for the building are Melanie Lazenby and Dina Lewis of Douglas Elliman.
