

NEW YORK POST

May 2, 2013

‘Gats’ entertainment

Douglas Elliman, a sponsor of the Gold Coast International Film Festival, is co-hosting a private May 8 screening of Baz Luhrmann’s “The Great Gatsby” in Port Washington, LI, with an after-party at Hempstead House, a famed Gold Coast mansion that is now an event space.

Douglas Elliman also has a $5.9 million, five-bedroom, 4,800-square-foot Sands Point listing at 8 Sands Light, on the former tennis court at Beacon Towers. Beacon Towers is the gothic-style mansion that was believed to be part of the inspiration for Jay Gatsby’s home in F. Scott Fitzgerald’s novel, according to historians Raymond and Judith Spinzia.