NEW York-born, London-raised actress Sienna Miller (left) — who is also the designer of the Twenty8Twelve fashion brand — is getting rave reviews for her recent roles in the drama “American Woman” and Showtime series “The Loudest Voice.” “21 Bridges,” in which she plays a Brooklyn narcotics detective, comes out in November. But that hasn’t kept her from the Hamptons charity circuit. When she attended an event supporting nonprofit Animal Haven, Miller stayed at a newly constructed waterfront home at 110 Hillside Drive East in Sag Harbor last weekend. It’s on the market for $11.25 million. Designed by Peter Cook, the 6,760-square-foot, eight-bedroom spread comes with eight full bathrooms and five powder rooms. The modern home sits on 0.8 of an acre, including prime beachfront overlooking Sag Harbor Bay. It features floor-to-ceiling glass walls on all three levels, as well as terraces, an infinity pool, a spa and a cabana. The smart-wired home also boasts a home theater and a climate-controlled wine cellar. The listing brokers are Douglas Elliman’s Justin Agnello, Erica Grossman and Hara Kang.
