

Rockhill has joined Douglas Elliman Real Estate firm

Veteran local broker, Brittanie Rockhill, recently joined Douglas Elliman Real Estate, the firm has announced. She will operate out of the Aspen office that's located at 520 E. Durant Ave.

"Brittanie has an innate talent for broadening the local community by familiarizing global buyers with Aspen's small town charm," according to a statement by Ed Foran, the managing broker for Douglas Elliman's Colorado operations.

"We are happy to welcome her into our growing Elliman family in the Roaring Fork Valley," Foran continued.

In terms of 2016 residential sales volume, Rockhill was ranked among the top 15 Aspen brokers. She began her local career at a "boutique firm" before moving to Shane Aspen Real Estate to launch its rental program. Most recently, she worked with the local Compass office.

In her new position, Rockhill will focus on luxury homes and condos in Aspen and environs. She earned two degrees from the University of Denver, in international business and real estate. Rockhill is fluent in English and Spanish, according to the release from Douglas Elliman.

The original article can be found here.