

March 9, 2014

Brooklyn Townhouse Roundup: Greek Revival Townhouse in Brooklyn Heights Asks $7.3M

Welcome to the Brooklyn Townhouse Roundup, where we—you guessed it—take a look at the most notable Brooklyn townhouses on the market. Got tips? Send 'em here.

Up next is this huge, 4,100-square-foot townhouse in Fort Greene. The place was built in 1864, and while it definitely needs a lot of work, the historic details are pretty impressive. There are 13-foot ceilings, ornate plaster moldings and medallions, original woodwork and flooring, pocket doors, and mantels, plus what look like some very nice chandeliers. It's asking $2.595 million.