Welcome to the Brooklyn Townhouse Roundup, where we—you guessed it—take a look at the most notable Brooklyn townhouses on the market. Got tips?

First up is this gorgeous brick townhouse in Clinton Hill. The place was built in the 1890s and has a wild facade with a blind œil de bœuf in Romanesque Revival and Queen Anne styles. It also has skylights, custom millwork, five stained glass windows, and decorative mantles. It's asking $2.545 million.
