

DOMAINE

SHOPPING, STYLE, & INSPIRATION FOR THE HOME

May 27, 2014

Real Estate Envy: 7 Gorgeously Renovated Homes

Real estate expert Alex Brunkhorst guides us through the best renovated homes in the country — and shares her favorite bathrooms and kitchens.

We've seen plenty of renovations gone wrong, and let us tell you: paying a pretty penny for a renovated home that's not quite your style or is a total #renovationfail is no way to start life as a new homeowner. Here to guide us in the right direction is Alex Brunkhorst, LA-based real estate agent and founder of Bungalux, who's identified seven beautifully renovated homes around the country and shared her favorite kitchens and baths. Click through for inspiration galore!

1. Elegant and Dramatic Townhome

Location: Manhattan, NY

Price: $12,000,000

Listing Type: Townhouse

Beds/Baths: 6/5.1

Year Built: N/A

Bragging Rights: Great location on the Upper West Side.

We're Looking At: The Master Bathroom

Professional Opinion: This master bath is pretty perfect, in my opinion. It feels very "bygone era" to me. It's a bath out of an Edith Wharton novel.

2. Garden District Beauty

Location: New Orleans, LA

Price: $2,300,000

Listing Type: Single Family

Beds/Baths: 6/8.0

Year Built: 1861

Bragging Rights: One of the prettiest places in the Garden District.

We're Looking At: That Cute Little Bathroom.

Professional Opinion: I love the small bathroom with the freestanding tub and the old-fashioned shower curtain. Use this idea at home to make small bathrooms conversation-worthy!

3. Renovated Landmark

Location: San Francisco, CA

Price: $10,250,000

Listing Type: Single Family

Beds/Baths: 9/4.1

Year Built: 1900

Bragging Rights: One of Pacific Heights' most stunning mansions.

We're Looking At: The Kitchen.

Professional Opinion: Why cook? Well, this kitchen answers that question. Emphatically. I love the way it opens to the outdoor deck with a whole wall of French doors.

4. Brooklyn Elite

Location: Brooklyn Heights, NY

Price: $3,295,000

Listing Type: Single Family

Beds/Baths: 3/3.1

Year Built: N/A

Bragging Rights: Posh Willow Street (Truman Capote's old hood).

We're Looking At: The Marble Bathroom.

Professional Opinion: New York houses are killing it on the bathroom front. Here's another that's been redone to look old . . . and is absolutely stunning. Come on, rest of the country, catch up!

5. Crosby Loft

Location: New York, NY

Price: $3,995,000

Listing Type: Co-Op

Beds/Baths: 3/2.0

Year Built: NA

Bragging Rights: One of the hottest streets in one of the hottest 'hoods.

We're Looking At: The Kitchen.

Professional Opinion: This is a great loft in general, but what initially caught my eye was the phenomenal use of open shelving in the kitchen. So chic with all-white dinnerware!

6. Laurel Canyon Modern

Location: Los Angeles, CA

Price: $1,375,000

Listing Type: Single Family

Beds/Baths: 3/2.0

Year Built: 1978

Bragging Rights: Designer-decorated home in a hot area of LA.

We're Looking At: The Powder Room.

Professional Opinion: I know Domaine's already given this advice on multiple occasions (and who am I to give decorating advice, anyways?), but the powder room is one of the best places to use a funky wallpaper.

7. Soho Gallery Building Penthouse

Location: New York, NY

Price: $19,750,000

Listing Type: Co-Op

Beds/Baths: 3/3.1

Year Built: 1900

Bragging Rights: Private garden overlooking Soho.

We're Looking At: The Kitchen.

Professional Opinion: I'm obsessed with this whole darn place, but that kitchen in particular. This spot is begging, absolutely begging, for a dinner party.