Supermodel takes a peek

Dutch damsel/Victoria's Secret angel Doutzen Kroes (right) is on the hunt for a townhouse to share with DJ husband Sunnery James and their 1-year-old son, Phyllon Joy Gorre,

Our spies spotted her traipsing through Chelsea, where she looked at one $4.5 million listing. Kroes was No. 5 on Forbes' 2012 list of highest-paid models, with $6.9 million in yearly earnings.

We hear . . .

That David Geffen closed last Friday on his $54 million deal to buy Denise Rich's triplex penthouse at 785 Fifth Ave. The 12,000-square-foot, seven-bedroom duplex co-op had a $65 million asking price.

SOROS EX-TRA

SUSAN Weber Soros (right), ex-wife of billionaire George Soros, can easily afford to buy a new trophy home even though she's still trying to find a deep-pocketed buyer for her current residence.

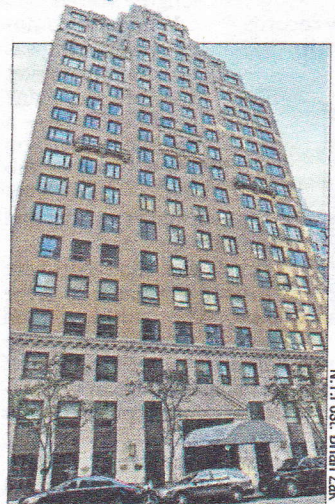

She just purchased an East 70th Street townhouse near Park Avenue for its full $22.5 million asking price. The five-floor mansion, which was listed by Brown Harris Stevens broker Paula Del Nunzio, was built in 1869 and offers 6,660 square feet with five bedrooms, four-plus bathrooms, an elevator, two terraces and a chef's kitchen and breakfast room in a glass gazebo that leads to the 26-foot-deep garden.

Soros still has her 6,000-square-foot, five-bedroom unit at the Majestic on Central Park West listed for a show-stopping $50 million. Fully furnished, it comes with a separate, one-bedroom "staff" apartment.

Fifth dimensions

A four-bedroom, 3½-bathroom, 3,335-square-foot condo at 1049 Fifth Ave., the building that's been home to Mariah Carey and Rush Limbaugh, is on the market for $13.5 million. The apartment features stunning Central Park Reservoir views, with a living room, formal dining room, library and breakfast room that all face the park.

Broker Carol Staab of Prudential Douglas Elliman has the listing.
