

NEW YORK POST

November 17, 2011

HOME BUZZ

YOU BETTCHA!

'MARGIN CALL" star Paul Bettany could be upgrading his real estate portfolio.

Bettany — hilarious as a money-eating rich bloke who loves to loathe his French-maid-outfitted, one-gloved manservant (Jack McBrayer) in Monday's 10th anniversary of Broadway's "24 Hour Plays" — has been busy apartment-hunting with his wife, Jennifer Connelly.

After a high-profile stint in Brooklyn, the couple now have their eyes on SoHo. They recently checked out the $13.75 million penthouse condo at 34 Greene St. The penthouse is nearly 5,000 square feet, with four bedrooms, 5 1/2 marble bathrooms and 15-foot ceilings.

The apartment is a modern duplex loft sculpted out of an 1873 cast-iron building, and it comes with 2,200 square feet of outdoor space, including a bathroom, kitchen, two showers and enough space for a pool and/or hot tub.

Bettany and Connelly's growing family include daughter Agnes, born in May, along with their 7-year-old son, Stellan, and Connelly's 14-year-old son, Kai, from a previous relationship.

Melanie Lazenby, Frances Katzen and Dina Lewis of Prudential Douglas Elliman have the 34 Greene listing.

Lorenzo Cimiglio; Getty Images (inset)

SEEING GREENE: Paul Bettany and Jennifer Connelly visit the penthouse.