West Village $3.249 million

Wonder what "the real deal" looks like when it comes to "old school" lofts? Here it is, a "sprawling, sun-blasted and cavernous" space measuring 2,585 square feet, with an open floor plan that boasts a "grand" entertaining space "ideal for cocktail parties." Though it retains its prewar "grandeur," this three-bedroom, two-bathroom corner condo has also been "newly renovated" with plenty of "modern bling." The "private location," on a quiet block of Clarkson Street, is nonetheless close to everything the Village has to offer. Agent: Darren Sukenik, Prudential Douglas Elliman, 212-727-6111
