

GOTHAM

November 7, 2013

<http://gotham-magazine.com/living/articles/5-spectacular-townhouses-now-on-the-market>

5 Spectacular Townhouses on the Market

BY ANNA BEN YEHUDA

Townhouses in New York City are a luxurious, and highly coveted, commodity. From landmark properties on the Upper East Side to newly renovated spaces in the West Village, we scoured the city to find today's top listings. Here, 5 townhouses with incredible views, super-luxe amenities, and one-of-a-kind features.

226-228 East 49th Street

Nestled in the historic Turtle Bay Gardens, this 8,000-square-foot home boasts five bedrooms, seven fireplaces, a private garage, and an elevator. Perfect for the New Yorker seeking the privacy that the city can rarely offer, the townhouse's private garden (with its own private fountain) overlooks the historic Turtle Bay promenade, the famous willow tree, and the famed "Medici fountain." $16,500,000. Jan Hashey, 212-206-2804;

jhashey@elliman.com

7 East 84th Street

One of only seven homes between Fifth and Madison Avenue to offer a private garage, this sprawling Upper East Side townhouse boasts eight bedrooms, ten full- and one half-bathroom, an elevator, a library with a screening room, separate maid's quarters, and more. A landmark mansion, this extraordinary residence has been maintained exquisitely throughout the years. $30,000,000. Jessica Cohen, 212-769-6553; jecohen@elliman.com