

WHO'S NEWS

Douglas Elliman Real Estate announced that Jessica Peters has joined The Eklund|Gomes Team.

Co-founded by Fredrik Eklund and John Gomes, the team is among the highest achieving in the country.

Peters will be their Executive Manager of Brooklyn Sales, leading resales and working with many of the new developments that are rising in the borough.

The Brooklyn broker brings six agents with her, including Allison Dubuisson, Justin McMahon, Daniel Fried, Jennyrose Halupka, Monica Breese and Vanessa Rodriguez, who will be serving as Peter's operations manager.

In her 12 years with Douglas Elliman Brooklyn, Peters has led sales for 71 new development projects and has achieved approximately $850 million in sales volume.

With the addition of Peter's, along with their expansion into Miami and California, The Eklund|Gomes Team brings their total agent count to 35, nearly tripling in size over the course of a year.

As they continue to expand their footprint in locations where they see future growth potential, the team is also growing in number at their brand new 10,000 s/f flagship office in the Flatiron District, where they are currently recruiting new agents.
